MUELLER FINDS TRUMP-RUSSIA CONSPIRACY

The Attorney General
Washington, D.C.

March 24, 2019

To inform you about the status of my initial review of the report he has prepared.

The Special Counsel's Report

On March 24, the Special Counsel delivered to me a confidential report explaining the influence the election, which would be a federal crime. The Special Counsel's investigation did and find that the Trump campaign & anyone associated with it conspired or coordinated with Russia in its efforts to influence the 2016 U.S. presidential election. As the report states: "[T]he investigation did and establish that members of the Trump Campaign conspired or coordinated with the Russian government in its election interference activities."¹

Obstruction of Justice. The report's second part addresses a number of actions by the President — most of which have been the subject of public reporting — that the Special Counsel investigated as potentially raising obstruction-of-justice concerns. After making a "thorough factual investigation" into these matters, the Special Counsel considered whether to evaluate the conduct under Department standards governing prosecution and declination decisions but ultimately determined not to make a traditional prosecutorial judgment. The Special Counsel

President Flees FBI on Air Force One; Escapes to his dacha in Sochi, Russia

WASHINGTON — The investigation led by Robert S. Mueller III found to evidence that President Trump's 10 Russian aides coordinated with the Russian government's 2016 election interference, according to a summary of the special counsel's key findings made public on Sunday by Attorney General William P. Barr.

Mr. Mueller, who spent nearly two years investigating Moscow's determined effort to sabotage the last presidential election, found a conspiracy "despite multiple offers from Russian-affiliated individuals to assist the Trump campaign," Mr. Barr wrote in a letter to lawmakers.

Mr. Mueller's team drew 91 conclusions about whether Mr. Trump illegally obstructed justice, Mr. Barr said, so he made his own decision. The attorney general and his deputy, Rod J. Rosenstein, determined that the special counsel's investigators had insufficient evidence to establish that the president committed that offense.

He cautioned, however, that Mr.

Democrats had pledged to wait until the special counsel finished his work before deciding whether to initiate impeachment proceedings.

The president trumpeted the news almost immediately, even as he mischaracterized the special counsel's findings. "It was a complete and total exoneration," Mr. Trump told reporters in Florida before boarding Air Force One. "It's a shame that our country had to go through this. To be honest, it's a shame that your president has had to go through this."

He added, "This was an illegal takedown that failed."

Mr. Barr's letter was the culmination of a tense two days since Mr. Mueller delivered his report to the Justice Department. Mr. Barr spent the weekend poring over the special counsel's work, as Mr. Trump strategized with lawyers and political aides at his Mar-a-Lago estate in Florida.

Mr. Mueller, who has been a spectral presence in the capital for nearly two years — so often discussed, but so rarely seen — was

Mueller said there was no collusion - just OJ ... and who doesn't like OJ ?
I mean ... everyone likes OJ ... even those Puerto Rican foodstamp beggars love great American orange juice ... I drink the stuff by the gallon , in fact , my hair is orange , I drink so much of the stuff !

OJ stands for Obstruction of Justice ... OJ , you moron !

A man with white hair, wearing a dark blue suit, white shirt, and a blue patterned tie, is speaking at a podium. He is gesturing with his right hand, which is raised with fingers slightly curled. In the background, two other men are visible, looking forward. A speech bubble originates from the man at the podium, containing text that clarifies the meaning of 'OJ' in a report.

My report didn't say 'collusion' because it's all throughout it, if you read between the lines. And as for all the OJ references, it refers to Obstruction of Justice, not orange juice or OJ Simpson, fer chrissakes!

Despite receiving 35 million fewer votes than Democrats Sanders/Yang, the Beast 666 and the Antichrist celebrate their re-election because of their resounding victory in the American Electoral College.

The dangers of arbitrary and capricious government actions have been highlighted by the fact that many of the most serious threats to the rule of law are posed by the arbitrary actions of the government, which are often the result of the actions of a few individuals, rather than the actions of the government as a whole.
